

Join the Seattle City Council as we discuss:

Can We Achieve Social Equity Using Smart Growth?

Monday, Sept. 20, 2010, 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.
Council Chambers, Second floor, City Hall
600 Fourth Ave, Seattle 98104

This interactive forum will include the success stories of proven policies and programs and a discussion of how to take practical steps to make our Seattle's urban growth work for everyone, regardless of background or income level.

PANEL SPEAKERS:

- Connie Galambos Malloy, Urban Habitat Director of Programs
How does the living wage job/affordable housing mismatch in some regions undermine the carbon neutrality goals of sustainability advocates?
- Professor Dennis Keating
Why do new development and higher rents on one or two or three properties set off price increases on surrounding older properties?
- Sarah Treuhaft, PolicyLink Senior Associate
What is the Equitable Development Tool Kit? Why is it important to use and how do we use it?
